“Where there is no vision, the people perish”

Proverbs 29:18

Walmart Booth

Margaret Cole, CareNet’s Director of Advancement, has had many opportunities lately to share the abstinence message in this community. To continue promoting this important message, CareNet sponsored a booth at Walmart on April 17th. This was to educate about abstinence during High School Prom season.

We had several teen volunteers (dress in prom attire) help man this booth. What a great opportunity it was to reach out to our teens with the positive message of abstinence. We passed out flyers on True Love vs False Love, gave stickers, candy, and encouragement.

The most exciting part was all the “Amen’s!” we were getting from parents.

Let’s help encourage our teens to hold on to the precious gift of purity!

Next time you renew your auto tags, consider asking for a “Choose Life” license plate. What better way to encourage others to “Choose Life”?

In our ever changing world, CareNet is searching for the best way to reach potential clients. Past forms of advertising are becoming obsolete. One way to spread the word about our services is hanging posters in public places throughout our service area. We have lists of areas in need of “Poster Children” (CareNet volunteers who would be willing to contact local businesses asking permission to hang posters, and checking periodically to make sure the posters are still there.) If you would be interested in helping in this way, please call Doris at 446-0701 for your packet of instructions and posters.
